Can Do and the Mall is the second exciting book in the Can Do Duck series. It's a story about working with others who are different and believing in ourselves. This timeless tale, written by a father and illustrated by his two young children and wife, will capture the hearts and imaginations of readers whether they be young or old, human or duck. The author, Ducktor Morty, is a child psychiatrist who wrote this book to teach children about getting along with others and how they can make a difference in the world when they have a Can Do attitude. This book follows the tale of a duck named Can Do who was introduced in the first book, The Can Do Duck. Both books are rhyming books which are fun to read and they also teach important life lessons.
